

Freaky Friday Description

I ask you to please create a website for a restaurant. This includes a homepage/landing page for the users where they are greeted and a page where they can order a table. I also ask of you to make the page as simplistic as possible to avoid the user having trouble with navigating the website. A navigation bar on the top for the user would be a nice touch for maneuverability.